

GSA Chief FOIA Officer

June 21, 2016

Mr. Jeff Larson
C/O ProPublica
155 Avenue of the Americas, 13th Floor
New York, NY 10013

Dear Mr. Larson:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) appeal letter dated March 14, 2016, in which you objected to the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) response to your initial FOIA request (GSA-2016-000083) seeking "a list of all federal government registered internet domain names and subdomain names." GSA originally responded to your FOIA request on December 2, 2015. Your appeal number is GSA-2016-000516.

After a careful review of your appeal and the records available, the GSA is releasing a list of all Federal second level domains. However, GSA does not register subdomains under the second level.

This letter constitutes the GSA's final determination of this matter. You have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in the United States District Court in the District in which you reside, have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia.

As an alternative to litigation, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) has been created under the 2007 FOIA amendments. OGIS was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS' services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS by mail at the following address: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 2510, College Park, MD 20740, via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov, or by phone at 877-684-6448.

Sincerely,

Cynthia A. Metzler
Chief FOIA Officer
